

Newcastle University

Civil Engineering and Geosciences

ISPRS Commission V Mid-Term Symposium Close Range Image Measurement Techniques 22nd - 24th June 2010; Newcastle upon Tyne, UK

Final Call for Papers (Extended Deadline: 18th Jan 2010)

Papers relating to scientific, engineering and technological development, as well as best practice application, are sought on all ISPRS Commission V topics

- 1000 word text-only abstracts should be submitted by 18th January 2010
- On-line submission form - <http://www.isprs-newcastle2010.org/call.htm>

Symposium Updates

- Conference registration
  - Full / concessionary early-bird registration £300 / £150
    - Includes all refreshments, lunches and social events
  - Local B&B student accommodation available from £30.00 / night
  - Local en-suite B&B accommodation available from £47.50 / night
- Confirmed keynote speakers
  - Clive Fraser, The University of Melbourne
  - Jean-Angelo Beraldin, NRC Canada
- Confirmed social events (included in registration fee)
  - Welcome reception, Newcastle Civic Centre (21st June)
  - Conference dinner, St. James' Park football stadium (23rd June)
- One-day pre-symposium tutorials (21st June; registration £90 / £45)
  - "Heritage 3D" and "Close-range sensors and technologies"

<http://www.isprs-newcastle2010.org>

